Chi ChatNews & tips from At Home With Harrah*A Healthy & Harmonious Holiday Wish from our Home to Yours.

The holidays are a wonderful time of year for celebrating. Here are a few of my favorite Feng Shui holiday decorating tips:

1. Place two or more poinsettias near your front door to activate career opportunities.
2. Increase your fame and recognition by placing red poinsettias in your fame area of home.
3. Increase your creativity and the birthing of new projects by forcing bulbs such as paper whites, and place in your creativity and career area of home.
4. Create the blossoming of "new love" by placing an amaryllis in your bedroom.
5. Gather friends and family alike by placing a round platter on a kitchen or family room table filled with finger foods; such as cookies, fresh fruits and nuts.
6. Add a collection of angel ornaments to the helpful people area of your home to enhance your friendships and to enlist the 'helping hands' of your angels.
7. Warm up your bedroom for holiday romance with a strand of red string lights.

A Testimonial from John Assaraf:

For the past several months, I have had the distinct pleasure of learning and personally interacting with John Assaraf, entrepreneur, author and featured teacher in the movie, "The Secret." During one of our recent visits, I gave Mr. Assaraf a Gratitude Globe as a gesture of his positive and profound influence on my life. In a thank you note he wrote, Harrah - "I love my Gratitude Globe. It sits on my desk and I look into it daily for focus and a moment of peering into my own future." John
